

A little light for storytime

For nurseries, reception classes, libraries and bookshops. Ages 2–5.

The Little Lantern Keeper is a gentle bedtime series by J.W. Lantern, published by Lantern & Lark Books. Meet Pip, a tiny moth with a lantern and a big-hearted wish to help.

The books

Start with The Little Lantern Keeper. Continue with The Sleepy Firefly and The Lost Star.

A simple 15–20 minute session

Read a story aloud for 5–10 minutes. Spend a few minutes talking about a little kindness, then offer the free colouring activity. Adapt the timing to your group.

Three gentle questions

Who needed a little help? How did Pip make them feel? What small kind thing could we do for someone?

Visits, review copies and enquiries

Use the website contact form to enquire about a storytime, author visit or review copy. Availability and arrangements are confirmed separately.

Share the story

Paperback and Kindle options can be explored on Amazon. Website downloads can be printed free for classroom and library activities.